

TOWN OF BON ACCORD CEMETERY

The Town of Bon Accord has a small cemetery located approximately 1 mile west of Bon Accord on the north side of Highway 28. Access to the cemetery is off RR241.

The old section has large mature trees around 3 sides and the oldest recorded burial is 1909. There are cremation plots available in the old section. The new section is west of the old section, north of the cemetery parking lot. The new section has full burial plots, cremation plots, and a columbarium available.

PLOTS

- Full burial plots are 4' X 8'.
- Only one full burial is allowed per plot.
- A maximum of 8 cremated remains may be interred in a full burial plot.
- Cremation Plots are 2' by 2'.

COLUMBARIUM

- The size of each niche is 1' X 1' X 1' deep

MARKERS

- All markers are to be flat markers (not to exceed ground surface); except in the old section pillow markers are allowed upon approval of Council.
- All markers must be firmly secured to a foundation. No grave covers are allowed.
- No markers will be erected in the cemetery until an application is made to the Town and a permit has been issued.
- Care, maintenance, upkeep, repair or replacement of markers is the responsibility of the owner or family.

BURIALS

- No interments shall be permitted until a burial application and permit has been completed and delivered to the Town (this includes cremation and columbarium burials).
- Concrete liners or vaults are required for full burials.
- Government issued Burial Permits are required; these are provided by the funeral home.

VISITORS

- No persons shall enter or remain in the cemetery between the hours of 11:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m. the following day.

VEHICLES IN CEMETERY

- Vehicles are only allowed in the cemetery on designated roadways.
- No vehicle may travel at a greater rate of speed than 10 km per hour.

- No bicycle, motorcycle, or horse is allowed in the cemetery except when it is a part of the funeral procession.
- The owner of any moving vehicle is responsible for any damage done by such vehicle.
