Quick facts | January 2024

Financial Assistance programs

Albertans are mailed a Seniors Financial Assistance application six months before their 65th birthday. One application will enroll eligible seniors in the Alberta Seniors Benefit, Special Needs Assistance for Seniors program, and Alberta Health's Dental and Optical Assistance for Seniors programs.

Alberta Seniors Benefit program

Provides a monthly benefit paid to eligible seniors with low income including accommodation assistance for eligible seniors living in designated supportive living and long-term care.

Special Needs Assistance for Seniors program

This program provides financial assistance to seniors with low income to assist with the cost of appliances and specific health and personal supports. Up to $5,643 is available in a benefit year.

Generally, seniors with an annual income under $31,080 or senior couples with a combined annual income under $50,720 may be eligible for the Alberta Seniors Benefit and Special Needs Assistance programs.

Seniors Property Tax Deferral program

Senior homeowners can defer all or part of their property taxes through a low-interest home equity loan with the Government of Alberta.

Seniors Home Adaptation and Repair Program (SHARP)

SHARP is a low-interest home equity loan program to help seniors finance repairs or adaptations to their homes. A maximum loan of $40,000 is available to seniors with an annual income of $75,000 or less.

Senior homeowners applying for SHARP and the Seniors Property Tax Deferral programs must have a minimum of 25 per cent home equity. The loan and interest can be repaid at any time without penalties. Monthly repayments are not required.

Housing

Seniors Apartments

This program provides apartment-style accommodation for low and moderate-income seniors who are able to live independently with or without the assistance of community-based services. A tenant's rent, which includes heat, water and sewer expenses, is based on 30 per cent of a household's adjusted income.

Seniors Lodges

Lodges provide supportive living services for low and moderate-income seniors who are functionally independent. Residents receive meals, housekeeping, recreational opportunities and other services.

Federal pension and financial assistance

Canada Pension Plan (CPP)

CPP is a retirement pension paid monthly to those who have contributed to the Canada Pension Plan. Payments may begin as early as age 60. Survivor and disability benefits are also available.

Old Age Security (OAS)

OAS is paid monthly to seniors who are age 65 and over, and who have lived in Canada for a minimum of 10 years.

Guaranteed Income Supplement (GIS)

GIS is available to low-income Old Age Security pensioners and is based on income (or in the case of a couple, combined income). It is not taxable. The Guaranteed Income Supplement is added to the Old Age Security payment.

The Allowance/Allowance for the Survivor

These allowances are paid monthly to low-income Canadians aged 60-64, whose spouse or common-law partner receives the Guaranteed Income Supplement or has passed away.
